ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

R. M. Carl of Bristol, raised an eleven pound beet in his garden this season.

Eight marriage licenses were issued by the Bennington town clerk in October.

The adjourned session of the October term of the United States district court will open in Rutland Tuesday November 21.

The condition of ex-Gov. G. W. Hendee, of Morrisville, who is confined to his home by illness, is improving.

The fence which is to be placed around the Chester A. Arthur monument at Fairfield is to be made of one and a half inch iron pipe, and is to be sixteen feet square.

Former Assistant Secretary of the Navy C. H. Darling has arrived at the home in Bennington where he will remain until he goes to Burlington, December 1, to assume the duties of collector of customs.

An official of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. in Brattleboro says that next year the Brattleboro exchange will be converted into a common battery exchange, having electric bulbs instead of drops on the switchboard.

Bishop David H. Moore, of Portland, Oregon, who presided at the annual session of the Vermont Methodist Conference at Enosburg Falls last April, has been assigned by the board of bishops to preside at the annual session of the Troy conference, which will meet in Saratoga in April, 1906.

Jonathan Babcock, of Stratton, who fell and broke one leg some time ago, died October 27. He was 97 years old and up to the time of the accident had enjoyed good health, being able to do his own work out of doors and in the house, as he had lived alone most of the time for the past few years.

Miss Hattie Mason Dodge has resigned her position as kindergarten teacher in the Lawrence Barnes school, Burlington, saying she is unwilling to accept the responsibility of caring for the kindergarten children under her charge so long as they are exposed to the demoralizing influence of a feeble-minded child.

The committee appointed by the village of Brattleboro to investigate the subject of village ownership of its water supply, has placed the material for its report in the hands of lawyer E. W.
Gibson, who will draft the report and submit it to the committee for revision.
A special village meeting will then be called to act on the report probably in two or three weeks.

Mrs. G. D. Austin, of Springfield, found in a book she hid off at an auction recently a curiosity in the shape of a three dollar state bank bill. It reads "The President, Directors, and Company of the Hallowell and Augusta bank promise to pay to D. Lovell or bearer three dollars." The bill was issued July 14, 1803, is No. 456, and signed by J.
Dummer, cashier, and John E. Page, president.

A VERMONT RED CROSS SOCIETY.

Meeting for Organization to Be Held in Burlington Tonight.

Burlington, Nov. 8.—Senator Redfield Proctor, who is one of the incorporators of the National Red Cross Society, named in the act of Congress providing for its incorporation, has asked Dr. Henry D.
Holton, of Brattleboro, to take the necessary steps to organize a Vermont society.

A meeting for organization will be held at the Van Ness House, in this city this evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Companion as a Christmas Gift.

Can you think of a gift more certain to be acceptable than the Companion?
To the Youth's Companion? Is there any one, young or old, who, having once had the paper in his hands and looked through it, did not wish to possess it for his very own? It is a gift which, far from losing its freshness as Christmas recedes into the past, grows more delightful, more necessary to one's enjoyment week by week.

The boy likes it, for it reflects in its pages every boyish taste and every fine boyish aspiration. The father likes it, not only for its fiction but for its fund of information of the practical sort. The girl likes it for the stories, anecdotes, sketches and editorial articles printed in each number especially for her. The mother likes it for its stories of domestic life and for its medical affection, for its children's page and for its medical articles.

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscriber all the remaining issues of the Companion for 1905 and the "Minutemen" Calendar for 1906.
Lithographed in twelve colors and gold.
Full illustrated Announcement of the new volume for 1906 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address.

IT IS FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressing there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair out at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow as ever. Even a simple wash will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

NEARLY 2,000,000 EGGS BOUGHT.

Fish Hatchery at Roxbury to Be Run at Full Capacity.

Stowe, Nov. 8.—H. G. Thomas, state fish and game commissioner, has bought one million brook trout eyedeggs from the hatchery at Roxbury, R. I., for the state hatchery at Roxbury. These, together with eggs received from the federal government from adult trout at the hatchery, will make nearly two million in all. Much needed repairs have been made at the hatchery during the past summer and the hatchery will be run to its fullest capacity the coming year.

ALONZO B. NUTE DEAD.

He is One of the Oldest Residents of White River Junction.

White River Junction, Nov. 8.—Alonzo B. Nute, one of the oldest residents of this village died Monday afternoon of general weakness. He was 86 years old last October, and was the son of Col. Samuel Nute, an early settler here and a pioneer in boat building on the Connecticut and White rivers in this locality. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. W. J. King. He was a life-long Democrat.

CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY CLOSES.

Bethel Association Gradually Lost Its Patronage.

Bethel, Nov. 8.—The Bethel Lympus Cooperative Creamery Association closed down business this week. This was a co-operative institution organized by farmers six years ago and for some time it was successful. Of late years the patronage has fallen off so that at the time of closing only the produce of about seventy-five cows was received.

"I Thank the Lord!"

cried Hannah Plant of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal and from which I had suffered for five years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy and Retail Drug Store. Price 25c.

A Carload of Poultry Food.

C. H. Diller of Shippensburg, Penn., not long ago purchased in a single order 28,000 pounds of poultry food. To some the purchase of so large an amount at one time may seem strange, but he explains his action in the following letter: "I am pleased to say that I regard Page's Perfected Poultry Food as an excellent article. Perhaps no better proof of my confidence in it can be offered than the fact that after giving it a thorough trial in a small way, I sent a single order for 28,000 pounds, and expect to send an even larger order the coming season. As an egg-producer I think it cannot be excelled, even by high-priced poultry foods which are being produced by other manufacturers."

Run Over By Hack.

Mrs. Emma E. Wilkins of Burlington was the victim of a painful accident Friday evening, when she was run over by an unknown hackman and sustained injuries to her back, shoulders and hand, which will probably confine her to bed for some time. Mrs. Wilkins is employed at the Queen City cotton mill at Lakeside and was leaving her work to board an electric car when the accident occurred. Mrs. Wilkins, who is partially deaf, did not hear the cries of her companions that a team was approaching and the horse knocked the unfortunate woman to the ground. She was rendered unconscious and was carried into the office of the mill. Consciousness was restored to the woman taken to her home, where Dr. Courtney attended her. Her condition at present is comfortable but it will be some time before she resumes her work. Eye witnesses of the accident exonerate the hackman from blame.
